

Assessment

1. Tests

Two short tests (multiple choice) during class time, Term 1 Week 8 and Term 2 Week 8.

The tests will cover material during the respective terms.

2. Assignments

(i) Class Presentation

Choose one of the following topics and give a 20 minute presentation during Term 2 (according to the schedule agreed in class). Draw on work to date and lead a discussion about theological issues and implications that need to be taken into account in defining a Christian position. Be prepared to support key arguments from the Bible.

A Christian Theology of ...

<input type="radio"/> current moral and ethical issues	<input type="radio"/> economic modelling
<input type="radio"/> living in a non-theocratic society	<input type="radio"/> ethnic diversity
<input type="radio"/> politics and political ideologies	<input type="radio"/> cultural pluralism
<input type="radio"/> the nature of contemporary church	<input type="radio"/> the nature of contemporary mission
<input type="radio"/> natural disasters (so-called Acts of God)	<input type="radio"/> human suffering

(ii) Essay

Drawing on the list of topics covered by the course (see timetable handed out in Week One) write a 2,500 essay on current theological thinking and debate about one of the major themes. Come to a Biblical conclusion about how the matter applies in your 21st Century society.

Essays should be supported by footnotes, using the format outlined in the student handbook and should include a short Bibliography.

To be submitted to the Unity office in the approved format by the final night of the course (28 June).
